CYSS MARCH

Last Wednesday Union representatives and other students joined a march organised by CYSS to protest about the Australian-wide closure of this worthy scheme.

At the end of the march, participants were addressed by representatives of the trades and labour council, aborigines, womens groups and aspiring politicians.

We all should be mindful of how ^{the} Federal Government is axing any of the worthwhile schemes to help the underprivileged members of our community when it abolishes the only visible help that it gives Australia's growing number of unemployed.

QLD CIVIL RIGHTS

Over the last month leaks have developed from the Queensland CABinet indicating that Joh's Government is to implement the most restrictive and authoritarian laws in Australia.

Queensland has already shown its violation of western civil liberties by banning street marches and "unauthorised" gatherings.

They are now passing legislation which will give police the power to arrest people on suspicion and to detain them in jail without trial. This is one of the many recommendations that Police Minister Hinze is to implement.

Other powers given to Police will be the authority to enter and search homes of known "radicals" (which means anyone who opposes or speaks out against ^{the} Queensland Government) and also gives unprecedented powers to private security guards.

With Queensland's known attitude to the Aborigines together with their draconian civil rights laws they are not much different to South Africa and truly deserve the title of the "Deep North".

SCAVENGER HUNT

Hot off the press is the news that the Scavenger Hunt for Xenogenesis Day has been scrapped.

Please return your firetrucks, Highway patrol cars and Certified virgins.

2WG

The latest leak from our illustrious country radio station is that they are attempting to be the number 1 radio station outside the metropolitan area.

Editorial Continued...

To achieve this they have appointed a new music co-ordinator who has instructed his D.J.'s to play a completely different type of music and present a different format to the listening public.

Keep tuned for this new approach to country radio.

ALBURY/WODONGA STUDENTS

Union representatives met with the Executive of Albury Wodonga students last Friday during their 'happy hour.'

Some discussions took place regarding the G.S.F. and the new amalgamated College. The Union will continue to look at all the options available to it for a viable student body which will cover the three campuses of Goulburn, Wagga and Albury/Wodonga.

THIS WEEK

By arrangement with Riverina's greatest multi-media personality writing under the pseudonym of Vox Rox we publish this week a semi regular column on the latest album releases.

Album Reviews

John

by Rox Vox

In this day and age of the new "blitz" sound coming out of England and to a lesser extent, America and Australia, its as refreshing as the first burst of spring weather to hear some plain uncluttered rock'n' roll. One of the better recent examples of that is the new TOM PETTY and THE HEART-BREAKERS album, HARD PROMISES. The album is full of assorted love songs that are each given their own 'treatment' - the lyrics could all be the same - it's the 'treatment' that carries this album. Other than Bruce Springsteen, I cant think of any other American with such an inspired idealised notion of rock and roll. The only disappointment on this piece of plastic is the two tracks featuring the talented STEVIE NICKS - they sound like they were put down after a very 'heavy' night - shame. An excellent album.

Moody Blues guitarist Justin Haywood could very easily find himself in the next campaign for British Prime Minister. With Ms Thatcher's lack of effective solutions to the current economic upheavals in the Motherland, Justin's music and lyrics on the Moody's latest album are being hailed as the most positive thoughts to cross the English channel in the last 10 years. The VOICE, the opening track on LONG DISTANCE VOYAGER seemingly contains the answer to all the worlds ills - brilliantly written!! The album on a whole sees a return to the Moody Blues of old, although its an album that doesn't really contain one particular concept as with earlier albums - it's a return to rock and roll fun. The new keyboard player is ex YES man Patrick Moraz, brought in to replace Mike Pinder who left to set up an Electronics firm. They've been around since 1963 and look like being with us for some time yet.

BEST & FAIREST

Congratulations goes to George Galvin who won the Baz Medal as a Best and Fairest player in the Farrer League, and to Chris Pearson for winning the Best and Fairest for the Wagga Hockey Association.

NEW TALENT

This week sees two new local bands coming to Rivcoll:- Tax and Public Servants, which are billed as new music bands. Catch them on Thursday night!

Letters

Dear Editor

How wonderful it was to see the hundreds of students and academics show their concern for the unemployed by participating in the C.Y.S.S. march last Wednesday. Because of the vast number of participants it is difficult to single out individuals. With great mathematical dexterity and a pocket calculator I concluded that the total College commitment was five: three Union officials, one academic and one full-time student. An ex-lecturer also attended. (A total of five males and one female).

With such a massive commitment the College once again illustrated that an enterprising person could easily become wealthy by opening an Apathy Club and charging everyone a $1.00 to sit on their.....

Another pleasing aspect of the March was the interest in the issue shown by a College lecturer who was approached by a marcher with a leaflet on the plight of the unemployed. The lecturer hurriedly retreated to the safety of a car and refused to accept the pamphlet. If the lecturers of this so-called educational institution display such apathy you can hardly blame the students. One wonders at the motives especially as this person lectures in Life Management. A course that is designed to train persons to assist those in the community with special needs - the unemployed, disabled, homeless and aged.

Unfortunately, once again CYNICISM and APATHY reign supreme.

RATBAG.

Memo to Noel Diffey & Staff,

May I, on behalf of the members of the Computing 1A Residential School (August 23rd - August 27th, 1981) thank all members of the Rivcoll Student Union for the entertainment provided during the school.

It seems, however, that the rest of the College may be a little afraid of super intelligent competition during the Trivia Quiz Shows. Maybe a quiz on Tuesday evening of Computing 1A Residential School (total numbers permitting) would enable the students to see 'real brains' at work.

Once again thankyou.

Regards,
Ray Harrold.

To the Editor,
Dear Sir,

Where have all the hippies gone,
When did they go away
Where have all the hippies gone
far far away
Where have all the hippies gone
they were so full of love
Why did they go away
Why did they go away

Where are all the protests now
Where is that passion for life
Where are all the calls for change
far far away
Where are all the placard chants
Young people powerful
Why did it have to end
Why did it have to end

I've heard it said - the young are dead
When did they die away
I've heard it said - the young are dead
When did they die
I've heard it said - the young are dead
They were so full of life
Why did they have to die
Why did they have to die

Tax/Public Servants

E² presents a unique local "double bill" this Thursday nite - two of Wagga's fastest rising local rock bands "TAX & "PUBLIC SERVANTS"

"TAX" consists of members of some of Wagga's earliest "new music" bands including The Lungs, Vienna Boys and The Honourable Schoolboys. Their first major public performance will be watched with considerable interest.

"PUBLIC SERVANTS" is a group made up largely of college students and the band has a very contemporary sound. This band is a very exciting one and they could well develop into one of the best bands around.

E² has a policy of promoting local talent and this "double bill" shapes as one of the best nights out for the semester.

Art Club Film Nite

The Art Club are screening a number of alternative-type films in the Union on Wednesday nite.

The films to be shown are: "Quite a Long Development - Artists at Work", "Environment As Art", and "My Survival As an Aboriginal" which have been made by the Sydney Film-makers Co-op.

These films will be of interest to all students not just to Art students.

Admission is $1.50 in order to cover the costs.

Revue

The Drama Club's production for this year - "Tea & Scones For The Boys" is from all reports coming along well

The show will open on Thursday October 8 and run until Saturday October 17.

I believe more students are still needed to assist with the production.

If you would like to be involved with the show go along to rehearsals at the South Campus Auditorium on any night this week or contact me.

Gate to Gate Run

This year's "Gate to Gate Run" will be run on Xenogenesis Day - Thursday October 1.

The event will start at 12.30pm with the men running to the Coolamon Road gate and back and the women to the Winery gate and back.

There is also a team's event for men & women and an invitation is extended to all sports clubs to enter this year.

Rivcoll Runners have arranged a "Cross Country Run" this Thursday during the common lunch hour, as a preliminary.

Meet outside East Block at 12.30pm if you would like to have a run.

Xenogenesis Day

October the First is Xenogenesis Day - which commemorates the amalgamation of the Wagga Agricultural College and the Riverina College of Advanced Education/formerly the Wagga Wagga Teachers' College.

Xenogenesis means "to give birth".

Each year the Union declares a half-day holiday to celebrate the occasion.

Please note that it is an "unofficial" half-holiday and some lecturers may persist with classes.

The programme will be listed in Barph next week.

Insurance

The Frazer Government's sabotage of the nation's health scheme serves as a reminder to all under-privileged persons to take advantage of socialised medical and hospital insurance.

The A.U.S. Accident and Sports insurance Scheme covers all enrolled full-time and part-time Wagga students for sports injuries and permanent injuries.

Please contact me for claim forms and other details.

"One Day in September"

It's that time of the year again - September madness.

Congratulations to George Galvin on winning the Farrer League Baz Medal Best & Fairest Award. Also to Craig Walsh on his outstanding game in Wodonga's premiership win in Ovens & Murray. Two very fine achievements - well done boys!

Commiserations to John Dohl and Dave McConnell, both members of Wagga Tigers reserve grade runners up team. Also to Turvey Park who bowed out of the South West premiership race for this season last Sunday. Bad luck fellas.

Hand in hand with finals fever is the "Colliewobbles" - the Pies are there again, just maybe this time for Collingwood for the first time since 1958.

And what about the Mighty Bluebags in Sydney?

I will join with one hundred thousand others for the annual religious observance at the MCG on Saturday.

THERE'S A LITTLE BIT OF CAZALY IN US ALL!

ROD.

SYNOPSIS

Joe Pendleton (WARREN BEATTY), a quarterback with the Los Angeles Rams, is informed by Max Corkie (JACK WARDEN), his close friend and trainer, that he has overcome a serious knee injury and he will start against Dallas that Sunday.

However, the following day Pendleton is involved in an accident while riding his bicycle. Soon he is being led through the clouds at a way station in Heaven by an extremely impatient celestial Escort (BUCK HENRY). Joe protests that there has been some mistake. He can't be dead. When the arch-angel Mr. Jordan (JAMES MASON) arrives, he makes a check, which quickly confirms that Joe is not due in Heaven for another 50 years. Joe is rushed back to earth, but it is too late as his body has been cremated.

Mr. Jordan and Joe immediately begin a search for a new body. After rejecting several possibilities, they arrive at the estate of Leo Farnsworth, wealthy businessman who is in the process of being murdered by his wife Julia (DYAN CANNON) and his personal secretary Tony Abbott (CHARLES GRODIN). Not wishing to get involved with Julia and Tony, Joe is about to leave the estate, when Betty Logan (JULIE CHRISTIE) arrives. She demands to see Farnsworth about a refinery his company is going to build, which will destroy her village in England. Sympathizing with her plight and impressed by her spirit and beauty, Joe agrees to temporarily use Farnsworth's body so he can help Betty. Mr. Jordan explains about the exchange of bodies; inwardly he will still be Joe Pendleton, but outwardly everyone will still see and hear Leo Farnsworth. Naturally Julie and Tony are shocked to find Farnsworth still alive and set about to keep murdering him until they succeed.

Joe is able to help Betty by rescinding the order to build the refinery in England. Betty is overcome with gratitude and a bond develops between them.

Joe calls Corkie and asks his help in getting his new body into shape so he can try out for the Rams. When Corkie arrives, Joe is able to persuade him about his true identity, in spirit if not body.

After several weeks of training, Joe feels he is finally ready, but the Rams refuse to give him a try-out. Using his new-found fortune, Joe buys the Rams and announces his intention to play quarterback in the Super Bowl.

Joe asks Betty to marry him, but Mr. Jordan returns to tell him that it is time to give up Farnsworth body. Joe is unwilling to change as he fears he will lose Betty. Mr. Jordan assures him that there is a divine plan after all.

A murder attempt by Tony finally succeeds, and Farnsworth's body falls down a well on the estate and goes undiscovered. No one can explain Farnsworth's disappearance. The police investigation is headed by Lieutenant Krim (VINCENT GARDENIA) who brings everyone together in classic detective story tradition at the Farnsworth estate the night of the Super Bowl.

As the questioning takes place, Joe and Mr. Jordan, invisible to everyone, watch the proceedings. Mr. Jordan then informs Joe that the Rams' quarterback, Tom Jarrett, has just suffered a fatal accident. Joe can use Jarrett's body and lead the Rams to victory.

Watching the game on television at the estate, Corkie realizes that Joe has another body. Also Farnsworth's body is discovered by a gardener, and Julia and Tony confess to the murder.

In the Rams' dressing room, Mr. Jordan tells Joe that this is his final destiny and that he will have no memory of the events of the last few months.

Betty has come to the Coliseum to find Corkie, but she runs into Jarrett. He doesn't remember her and she doesn't recognize him. However, she has a feeling that she knows him from somewhere. He has the same feeling. He invites her to have coffee, and they leave the Coliseum together.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS REPORT

CYSS Incised

Last week's march protesting the closure of the CYSS met with a very poor response. This response was not unexpected in view of increasing public apathy when it comes to those less fortunate than themselves. A particularly disappointing aspect of the turnout for the march was the numbers of unemployed people in attendance. Such is the stigma attached to being classified as unemployed that undoubtedly many of the unemployed were simply not able to appear in public.

Perhaps it is time for institutions such as this college to open its facilities and resources to the unemployed and the more disadvantaged groups in society to a much greater extent than is the case at the moment. In this way the College could be perceived as fulfilling a worthwhile community service.

State Elections

Saturdays election result which saw the Wran Labor government return also showed how atypical the seat of Wagga is in its voting behaviour.

Any chance that Wagga had of getting the new Gobba Bridge has disappeared.

Similarly, the Base hospital may get a few new bedpans but a new Base Hospital is now beyond the realms of political reality. With so many Labor politicians seeking to satisfy the needs of their own electorates it is unlikely that Joe Schipp will be able to persuade the Wran Government that his proposals for Wagga command a higher ranking.

It was made obvious by certain politicians prior to the election that both the Gobba Bridge and the Base Hospital would become realities only after Labor Party win in Wagga - such are the spoils of victory and the penalties of defeat.

Another interesting aspect of the election result is the call by the leader of the Country Party of N.S.W., Leon Punch, for his party to lead the coalition opposition.

Education Fightback Campaign

A recent survey conducted by the Australian Democrats indicates that approximately 48% of people in the Wagga area agree with the Union's campaign against cuts in tertiary education funding and other measures adopted by the Frazer Government. 44% of people were opposed to the Union's stand on the issue. In an electorate as conservative as Wagga, (based on Saturday's election results), this is a very pleasing result.

The Union will continue to endeavour to reverse the decisions of the Federal Government relating to Education, Health and Welfare.

The State organiser for the T.T.A., Jim Jane, will be visiting Wagga on Thursday 15th October and the Union will arrange a forum commencing at 12.30pm on that day to discuss education issues in general and Teacher Education issues in particular.

TABLE TENNIS

Last Tuesday nights table tennis round saw only one college team emerge victorious. This team was RCAE Grey. It features our college womens A Grade star, Julie Whitla and the inevitable, Brian Gillis. These two "gutsy" players braved against all odds (1/3 of their team didnt quite make it....) to defeat, arch rivals RCAE green 6 games to 5. Well done Julie and Brian!! Comments after the game:

Julie: "Just as well the rest of our team didnt arrive or we would have had to wait an hour more before we got our refreshments".
Brian:.....(Brian had to leave straight after the game due to circumstances beyond his control).

Back to table tennis:

The results of other games played last Thursday night were:

A Grade: Red lost 3:8 (S Davidson 1 game and A Lam 2 games)

A Reserve Grey won against Green 6:5 (J Whitla and B Gillis 3)

B1: Gold lost 3:8 (C Maslin 2, S Morton 1)

Brown lost 3:8 (L Farnsworth & R Griffiths 1)

B11: Blue lost narrowly 6:5 (Wes played very good table tennis and won all his games and Olive performed quite well).

Had better go now.....

Yours in table tennis
Carol.

SQUASH and TENNIS

Well this season's competition is well under way with some great and heavily fought matches resulting. Keep it guns and remember it is most important for one and all to complete those matches. The second round is lagging at the moment so those who haven't played how about doubling up this week.

In the not too distant future (ie. around Mid October) it is proposed to have a union night in conjunction with the basketball and table tennis clubs, so how about everyone where possible keeping that night free (A band etc. will be featured).

The prestigious annual club championships will be occurring in October on Fridays the 9th and 16th, all player in the competition will be included, plus any others who may be desirous of competing. Entry forms will be published in a latter edition of Barph.

Last Sunday the Rivcoll Tennis club got under way. A good roll up was in evidence and some sparkling and not so sparkling tennis was seen.

REsults:

A Block no 1 team defeated the West Blockers 6-1, 6-7, 6-4 (Lester Snare, Graeme Thompson defeated Russell Hanley, Tony Beard).

A Block No 2 team (Dave Jones & Dave Erwin) defeated a weakened C Block team (Neil Cactus, McLeod & Gary Green). 6-2, 6-2.

As Nappay Alley did not front they lost on a forfeit to C Block. So how about making it next week fellows (and ladies) at the Campus Courts at 1.30.

BASKETBALL

Well at last College teams are winning or coming close to winning games in the Basketball comp in town. In M1 they were unlucky to go down 32-23 after leading at half time 9-0. The team played well and all players especially Dave Johnson, Rod Duncan and Joe Cedia put in a gutsy effort.

In W6 college won 16-6. Vicki Schliebs, Cathy O'Loughon and Kay Satterthwaite had strong games. For the next game, Coach would like all players to turn up so that 'el Hogo' can have a rest and maybe we'll score more points.

W3 had a very close game, resulting in a loss by 2 points 23-25. Good game by all especially 'aggro' gena Bunt who scored 14 points and also a coupla punches in the head.

The results for W4 and M4 are unknown.

Lets keep the good work up and see if we can take out a couple of grades in the finals.

Draw for Next Week.

Wed 23.9.81

W3 7.40pm Court 1

W6 8.30pm Court 2

M4 6.00pm Court 3

Mon 28.9.81

M1 9.40pm Court 1

W4 6.00pm Court 4

All people who have singlets and do not play basketball please return them to Jill Cremer, as soon as possible. We need those singlets for people in this comp.

It is good to see people are starting to pay $10 rego but there is still a lot of money owing so get in there and pay it.

If anyone who has played for college this year and is registered elsewhere in the state, please see Branda Satterthwaite about refund of money.

If anyone is interested in playing Basketball leave your name in Union pigeon hole.

Thats all now
