obviously the first target to save money is by axing staff and that is what is about to happen next year.

Apparently staff are looking for a scapegoat for their problems and are trying to insulate themselves against any staff redundancies - thus the rumours that Wagga will be severely disadvantaged without Teacher Education.

The real culprits in this sordid affair is our Principal, Dr C Blake, who is the initial architect behind the amalgamation and also the Federal Government for forcing Colleges to amalgamate and/or close down. The losers are the youth and students of Australia but the true loser is an uneducated, technically deficient Australia.

EDITORIAL

Amalgamation

A meeting of students was held on Monday 1st June to discuss problems associated with the amalgamation of Goulburn and Riverina C.A.E.'s. Prior to the meeting Teacher Education staff had been saying to students in their lectures that Rivcoll Union had advocated in their submission to the Hagan Committee that Teacher Education move to Goulburn. Some lecturers became even more specific. They stated that the Union was advocating that students currently enrolled at R.C.A.E. will have to complete their courses in Goulburn next year.

This is a total distortion of the truth. The Union, in endeavouring to do the right thing by the students of both campuses, has continually advocated that Teacher Education should be maintained at both campuses. In addition the Union's submission advocated that Business Studies be also offered at Goulburn as well as Wagga and Albury. The Union is concerned and has done its best to minimise problems that will occur with the amalgamation.

One thing must be realised from the beginning - amalgamation will affect some people at some time during the years and that means both staff and students. If we are going to amalgamate with a College that is 180 miles away then some people have to travel that distance to co-ordinate and service these campuses.

Initially staff and students of this campus were complacent in their attitude to amalgamation. It is now becoming obvious to them that changes will have to occur and some staff will have to be dismissed.

With salaries eating up 80% of the College budget and with reduced funding indicated by the H.E.B. and the Razor gang then

Some Lecturers are circularising petitions to retain Teacher Education solely at Wagga campus. I would urge all students not to sign this petition and to treat it with the contempt that it deserves and to see that lecturers are using students as pawns in the game to enable them to retain their job in Wagga.

Court Proceedings

Last Thursdays Daily Advertiser carried a story about a well-known Wagga dentist who had a P.C.A. (D.U.I.) charge dismissed in the local court.

This particular case created much controversy during the morning talk-back show as many people allegedly questioned the leniency shown by the judge who is well-known to impose the maximum fines. The dentist, Mr P Hastie, claimed that his position as Chairperson of R.C.A.E. College Council necessitated his holding a licence to enable him to travel a lot.

Editorial - Continued.

The judge found the offence proved however the judge also levied no fine or disqualification and had the information on the case dismissed.

The moral of the story is, as one well-known dentist would say, one more for the road?

Fascist News

While in Melbourne last week I was given a confidential information sheet obtained from the Nazi party in Australia which I have good reason to believe to be true. Amongst additional information on the sheet was the Party's death list. I am sure you will be interested to see who are their potential enemies. The people marked for death are: R J Hawke, Barry Humphries, John Halfpenny, Malcolm Frazer, Irwen Rockman, Bill Haydon, Don Chip, Idi Amin, Albert Langer, Barry Cohen, George Georges, Michael Willessee.

The handout is signed Heil Hitler. Interesting isn't it? Till next week.

BALI WINNER

Winner fo the fabulous Barph to Bali raffle is ticket number 284 in the name of Carole Rose, care of student mail. The winning ticket was drawn by that colourful College identity - 'Gobbler, otherwise known as Donald Kirkpatrick. Gobbler was chosen to draw the raffle as last year he sold and purchased the winning ticket in our February Bali tour. As Gobbler and Carole are both going on our Bali tour I am sure that they will enjoy together with the rest of the participants, a truly rewarding and fun-filled time in the sunny tropical paradise.

Letters

Dear Sir,

Last Thursday night, E² presented entertainment for the students in the form of a jazz rock band. This band, "Quasar", was clearly advertised as not being the normal 4/4 dance band. E² decided to present this band in the interests of those students who didn't like rock and roll/new wave music.

The reason I am forced to write this letter is because of the actions of a minority of students. Sorry, in actual fact, the exaggie that did it, was not even a Rivcoll Union member, and it shall be remembered. His blood-alcohol level was obviously far in excess of his I.Q., which would explain his actions.

As I said in RACE, it is no use complaining of an event after it has happened, nobody can do anything about it, the band was advertised as Jazz Rock and not a word was heard from anyone before the show.

Finally, to all you whingers, don't show your lack of tolerance of something a little away from the norm, because it is a sad day when a College of Advanced Education cannot be prepared to give something new the benefit of a civil audience.

John White.
Chairperson
E²

Dear Editor,

RE: Admission prices to Union nights

It is with interest and scepticism that I read the article by the E² Chairperson in the latest edition of Race. I too regarded the move by the Union committee to cut budgets of any club as regrettable but nevertheless this move was inevitable because regardless of contrary opinion, Rivcoll Union does not possess unlimited financial resources.

As demands for funds upon the Union were greater than available financial resources greater self-generation of funds most evolve either at club or enterprise level. The committee, as seen through the changes in the Ag Campus Canteen is trying to improve profitability of its enterprises without imposing substantial price rises which to my mind is totally unacceptable. Thus the remainder of desired funds must come from self generation within the club, and in the case of E² the greatest economic burden can be passed on to non-union members which is only fair because these persons do not pay the General Service fee paid by the financially deprived students.

One further option would be to attempt to substantially increase the General Service fee paid by students, even though Rivcoll's is one of the lowest, but this too, is an undesirable step considering the philosophy of the present Federal Government in reducing student finance, in real terms and imposing the economic burden of education upon students (ie. making education the privilege of the financial elite).

Free education for all is a right not a privilege of the rich.

The comments of the E² Chairperson on student apathy and after the event, comments are well noted.

As is the fact that none of the E² committee nominated for the committee of Rivcoll Union to present their case directly, nor to my knowledge has E² put forward a representative for that committee. I also suggest to you and all other clubs within the Union to prepare comprehensive applications for funding, when funding time arrives again which to my mind was not done last year.

Yours in the Provision of better education for all.

Shaggy.

SAME OLD PLACE

Joe Schipp says, I quote; "What is being overlooked by the parents and to a large degree by the school system, is that the forces of supply and demand will ensure the person who chooses his career to fill the vacant spots will become the elite worker of tomorrow". All fine and obvious logic. I just hope nobody expects our current tertiary teachers to put it across with much conviction.

Consider Dr Sam Bloggs, academic, who is not me, but who is not too far removed from a lot of us.

Young Bloggs, school bright boy, perceives a great upsurge in tertiary education in the early fifties, says: "That's my vacant spot in market demand", and starts training to fill it. So he goes for his minimum - from school of seven years to a PhD, and emerges (aged about 25) as an academic in 1960,

In 1981, now, he is indeed pretty well paid, but he has watched his real wages tumble and his job becoming increasingly undesirable, and sees refreshment leering at him over the pages of every government report. And he is just too old to start over again.

Nowadays of course, changes promise to move much quicker. The kid who commits his life to the present market's demands may have his chance and need to start all over again in competition with the next batch of young hopefuls when he is a mere chick in the mid thirties.

The gutters of our market economy are blocked with the wreckage of careers made according to its whimsical demand forces. Fostering youthful hopes to the contrary will have to be done by some sector of teaching with far fewer people in it who have experienced the reality. Perhaps the market economy of these times needs its throwaway - human fodder indoctrinated by teachers who really are ignorant of the "real world"; the Buttetin should, for it's employer - class readers sake, have campaigned to keep us in the "ivory tower".

Yours
Harry Oxley.

DO YOU KNOW
HOW LONG IT'S BEEN SINCE
I'VE TALKED TO A WOMAN?

Dear Sir,

My eldest son Barry attends Rivcoll and receives Barph weekly as does most students. Was I not shocked to constipation when I read Men's Liberation column. Was I not nauseated to discover a club such as this within reach of the banks of the Murrumbidgee.

Barry is the eldest of 11 kids and of course is the apple of their eyes (dear little pets). BUT, TO THINK HE BRINGS SUCH UTTER CRAP - (not even good enough for cutting up into crap squares - for how can crap wrap crap - logical reasoning) into a good CATHOLIC home like ours "Sweet Mother Mary".

Where the old man ran out on us 5 years ago - simply shatters our rosary beads. And having no elder to dominate our house, as a mother I'm finding it pretty difficult. Our father was an obstinate man - hooked to the spint ie. he had a walk-about bush nature and I'm sure me kids will follow suit with such propaganda of so-called free press at Rivcoll. Perhaps Barry should stop bringing Barph home but why should I deprive him of the Bushpig and Rugby scores each week? The other ladies at the CWA also feel strongly about clubs without justice such as these and to think they are even going to tap a keg at the feature tourist point of Rivcoll - The rotunda, on Friday 2pm is simply appalling.

My message to all fellow readers and justifies citizens is hang on to your morals and reasoning and you'll hear more of Lola McTavish if such corruption continues.

Yours sincerely,
Lola McTavish

Dear Sir,

Referring to your Men's Liberation article in Barph 31.5.81. Was I not disillusioned and appalled at the utterance of such feeble terminators of inexactitudes of this simple minded "Matt" - could almost wipe your feet on! For millions of years the female has been exploited to varying lengths, a classic example stems back to Adam and Eve. Although Adam took the "credit" of allowing us to live in a world of sin and deborgery, Eve did all the work like picking it, finding it, shining it - she probably even peeled it for him and anyway who said deodorant is strictly female? According to the Journal of New York Statistics, "Man to our Environ't in Astro Zero", in 15 years alone men were using ! 5/6 more cosmetics than females! This includes everything from deep-heat to baby oil.

Furthermore how can the "penis symbol" "Hot Banana" (unquote) be compared! ie. Can one peel a penis? Can ones penis begin at a point creating a concave at centre then taper to a point. Perhaps if you are double-jointed or of contortionist nature in a particular area.

I feel women have been plagued by phallic symbols not men! (read with gusto!). Why even a garbage bin has certain connotations ie. when you put something into them - and how do you feel for instance when you innocently lick the cream out of a cream bun eh!! (Please excuse the imagery).

This letter speaks for itself - to be absurd Matt is to be heard! All we have to do now is re-arrange the old cog. To the brothers - wankers don't go alone

Yours,
Freeda Fentom.

ACTIVITIES REPORT

National Intercol

All sports clubs who have indicated their intention to compete in the A.C.A.E.S.A. National Intercol in Canberra from July 13-16 are urged to attend the meeting of Sports Council in the Union's Meeting Room on Thursday at 12.15pm.

Tentative entries have been made for the following sports - Australian Football, Basketball, Hockey, Netball, Soccer, Squash Table Tennis and Volleyball.

A bigger cast than Apocolypse Now?

Bushpigs Film Night

The Bushpigs come to the screen tomorrow night (Wed) in the Union with a combination to match Clark Gable and Vivien Leigh - footy grand finals and blue movies.

The 1971 and 1977 VFL Grand Finals are both classic games and I believe the Pigs have secured some "blue movies" never seen B4 in Wagga.

The recent loss of match points, fines and forfeits have hit the Bushpigs hard - so players and supporters get behind the club and support the Film nite.

Also on Saturday at Maher Oval the Bushpigs clash with arch-rivals Marrar. It should be a close game.

GOULBURN INTERCOL

BOK's mighty ball punchers will attempt to annexe yet another title to their already impressive list of victories at the Softball Intercol in Goulburn this weekend.

The softball team have been practising hard in preparation for the intercol. But they will have to be on their mettle to win again.

May I take this opportunity to wish the Softball team every success.

Team members are required to pay their $25 entry fee to the Union office by 5pm today (Tuesday).

Martial Arts Course

There are still places available in the Basic Introduction to Martial Arts course.

This is an opportunity for those not familiar with the sport to gain a basic introduction to self-protection. For further details see the enrolment form in Barph or contact me.

The More They Learn

E² presents the locally-produced and directed film "The More They Learn" in the Union on Thursday nite.

It focuses on the life of Rivcoll Student David McPherson. The film which runs for about an hour will be shwon from 9pm sharp. Please note that the bar will be shut during the showing.

Education Campaign

The Rivcoll Union has moved to strongly support the A.U.S. Education Fightback Campaign.

The Union expects to organise a series of meetings, letters, petitions, and a demonstration to effect a protest against the Frazer Government's slashing of education funds, re-introduction of tuition fees and forced amalgamation of Colleges.

Stay tuned!

Rod.

SHE OF MY DREAMS

Oh the smile I got from her today
Oh the funny things she always has to say
Oh the fountain of youth that runs

Oh that drooling current as it

strangers stop to drink
Oh her raging bubbles on which I cannot sink

Oh her furry whisper, the reedbed sweeping touch
Oh her smell of cheeses, fermented foreign - dutch
Oh her knowledge of the world

A STAR....

RIVCOLL DRAMA

Rivcoll Drama is looking for a star!

In September the much awaited musical, "THE FANTASTICKS" will be presented in beautiful down town Wagga.

This gentle, whimsical musical has only one female part. Her name is Luisa. She is young, sings beautifully (soprano) and has a sense of the fantastic (hence the name - see?)

If you think you would like to try out for her part (this could be but a beginning!) contact Colin Anderson in the drama department (located in the general services complex on Boorooma Campus), internal phone no: 473.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS REPORT

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS REPORT

Fees and Loans: Mr Fife in today's Advertiser stated that "the Government has no intention of re-introducing fees for first degree courses". He was attempting to dispel fears that the Australian government would introduce fees for first degree tertiary education students.

Given the Federal Government's deplorable record of broken promises and Mr Fife's record of broken promises, this statement could hardly be taken by any but the most gullible as dispelling fear of the introduction of fees across the board for all tertiary education students.

Mr Fife stated last November, shortly before the elections, that the Government had no intention to introduce fees for any tertiary education courses. Less than 6 months later, the Razor Gang announced the introduction of fees for students studying for a second qualification. It is apparent that Mr Fife has little say in what happens and therefore his current assertions should be treated with caution. There is nothing stopping the Government from repeating the events of the prior 6 months and announcing the introduction of fees for all tertiary education courses.

Mr Fife has also mentioned the anomalies in the determination of what is a second qualification opposed to what are acceptable combinations of courses. In a typical copout Mr Fife has referred such decisions on to the Tertiary Education Commission.

Another statement attributed to Mr Fife is that "one positive step to have been taken was the introduction of a loans scheme in addition to the Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme (TEAS)". One wonders as to how this "initiative" can be construed as being positive. This move is a regressive step and will seriously disadvantage students from poorer family circumstances and women.

The scheme is apparently to be implemented through the banks and the tertiary institutions. I wonder how a female student will be able to justify to a lender that she is a good loan risk, given the traditional attitude of banks in this country to lending to women.

The Amalgamation of Goulburn and Riverina

This week the Consultative Committee looking at the amalgamation are meeting in Wagga and Albury. One thing that comes out very clearly from the proposed agenda is that there is a disproportionate amount of time allocated to socialising with various groups and not much time, comparatively, to hear submissions.

Another interesting aspect is the manner in which the Chairperson, Dr Hagan is kept separated from the rest of the Committee. One could be forgiven for believing that the proposed agenda was drawn up to achieve these ends.

The Union's submission will be presented to the Hagan Committee on Tuesday afternoon. Not that any submission can, given the time constraints, be given full consideration by the Committee.

CULTURAL EXCHANGE

Activities Council presents a Cultural exchange between Rivcoll students and the California State University Choir.

When: Monday 6th July (yes next Monday)

Time: 12.30pm - 2.30pm

Where: Union Building

Entertainment will be provided as well as a BBQ for all visitors and guests.

This is an excellent opportunity for Rivcoll students and staff to meet what could be described as a big brother institution from the States (Maybe it may be part of Rivcoll one day).

The Choir will perform in St John's Church of England as part of a tour of Australia and New Zealand. The Choir has twice toured Europe and Scandinavia presenting concerts and workshops. The Choir has performed gospel music in concert with Mohalia Jackson and popular music with The Carpenters.

So don't miss this chance to expand your cultural horizon.

So all players selected in the team (as shown in the last edition of Race) please ensure you are at the courts by 1.30pm on that day. SOCCER

Soccer this year appears one in which us REDBACKS can possibly win the premierships in both mens 1st and 2nd Grade (2nds have a better chance) and the womens comp.

If we are going to achieve this we all have to chip in and "get our act together". This means turn up at training, supporting all our REDBACK TEAMS wherever possible, and raffles or any other fund raising activity which will "benefit" club members.

To accomplish the above the REDBACKS, no matter what grade, age, sex or race need CONFIDENCE in our leadership. We have a good committee I'm sure - but they need to be consistent particularly in regards to "Only those who train play". TRAINING=PLAYING. These keen REDBACKS who train deserve first selections for 1st grade. But as we have seen this is not happening - REDBACKS who dont train play in 1sts, a player with good soccer reputation turns up and gets a game in 1sts without any training.

This kind of approval of selection is causing much DISSENTION in the ranks of the soccer club. This in turn is inhibiting social growth and competitiveness in Wagga for us REDBACKS. Do we want this? NO.

What we need is a club committee which follows up what it says eg. No train. No play. This will have a multiple effect on the clubs members as for as respect and support for our leadership.

this year soccer and the REDBACKS mean so much to me and others I'm sure. So lets develop our interest in the club by having an interesting club.

HOW CAN YOU HELP

A suggestion to TRUE REDBACKS and not just good players.

"Help the club by refusing to play in firsts if you feel or know you don't deserve to, ie. haven't trained etc. Its in yours and the clubs interest in the long run" also "Coach selectors, please don't select members for 1st grade who dont deserve the privilege - the Club is in YOUR HANDS. REDBACKS WILL HAVE FUN 81.

Actors Equity.

LADIES SOCCER

On Sunday the ladies played their first game for the comp against Junee (last years premiers).

At first we thought we'd win due to none of the other team turning up till 3/4's hr later.

It was great to see an over-abundance of players despite the state they were in (eg Liz Lya).

Well we had a full team and Junee only had seven. Due to this fact every time our dashing forwards made a break eg Wendy, Debbie (Blonde headed Deb) we were caught off-side.

Everybody showed heaps of enthusiasm despite the lack of training. Not our fault the guys won't give us the balls even though some of the new ones are supposed to be for us. How about giving us a go. We need them just as much as you do and would like the ones allocated to the womens to be left with us so that when all of us make the effort to turn up to training we can at least train.

We all tried exceptionally hard. Pat had a great game and it was good to see everyone.

A general meeting is being held on Wed at 8.30 and at the moment is at Sth campus Gym, so be there and keep your eyes open in case of a change.

Oh, by the way the score was 0-0. Training next Tuesday 6.00pm (if we get our balls)

On Saturday the Rivcoll soccer team travelled interstate to play against the Twin City side at Wodonga. The side was looking for a big effort after it's disappointing effort against RAAF the previous week. Our bus trip down, under the guidance of bus driver Billy Lyon proved to be eventful, with Martin "the leech" Meach being the centre of attention. Rumour has it that Martin was attacked by Donna the leech. Would Donna please give Martin 2 litres of blood back! We arrived at the ground after some helpful directions from a wog which we found on one of our few travels through the Riverina bush. In our multi-cultural society it was proven on Saturday that certain members of the ethnic community still don't know their right from their left.

The Redbacks began the game in confident manner controlling the midfield and looking like scoring on several occasions. However Twin City scored first when a shot from their centre forward rocketed into the net after some scrappy play outside the box. This goal separated the teams at half time.

The Redbacks came out for the second half with instructions from coach Bellamy to fall over in the penalty box when touched and thus perhaps create a penalty against them. However we were unable to get into their penalty area because of continual off-side decisions against us.

In the second half Twin City scored five goals - the ball ran their way on the day.

Changes must be made to certain positions on the field and several new faces could fill 'permanent' first grade members if they continue to fail in first grade. As Harry Bath has done in recent weeks - he's wielded his axe and now he's getting results - just ask a Manly supporter.

The events that occurred after the game were ones that will be discussed and told to the next few generations. The first stop was the pub where we involved ourselves in drinking as much as we could so that we could forget our narrow loss. The food was OK - ask Bruce Jackson. Bruce finished off 5 helpings of salad.

Our second stop was at one of the oppositions houses. After several Carltons we decided to journey back to Wagga - this time Keith being the driver.

Our first pit stop was at Gerogery where after several gallons of wine was deposited into the cellar, we again quenched our thirst. Billy, Tolly and Bruce displayed their hands at Space Invaders. Keith's attempts to go to Culcairn were hindered by a black man named Gordon who decided that by travelling on the roof he would not suffer from claustrophobia inside the bus. He then decided that it might be better to travel on the windscreen wipers so he could be the first to the Culcairn pub. He was persuaded it would be better to travel inside as the night air was a bit chilly.

The Culcairn pub scene saw many notable Redbacks try to score with a local lass. Martin decided that by chatting to the father of the girl he might get the inside running. But while he was attempting this Bruce moved in and donated his services. Knocked back again Bruce?

The Redbacks hit Henty with a bang. Bruce and Tolly nearly had a fight with 20 of the local hoods, Martin tried his hand with four of the Henty over 24' women, Gordon pretended he was a parachutist and attempted to fall out of the plane and all the rest of us attempted to keep these drunk and degenerate redbacks from getting involved with the boys in blue. Our leaving ceremony by the hoods of Henty was marred by middle glasses being thrown at the bus and the railway gate being locked.

Gordon was again involved in the action on He had his 'trackies' and his $3.20 jocks taken down and his vitals sprayed with beer, the first washing they've had for several weeks. His jocks were then ripped to ribbons; courtesy of a red haired gnetleman. Gordon wasn't impressed and attempted to break all the redbacks necks.

Bruce Jackson provided some culture to the trip when he chucked over the side of the bus.

Let's hope that was the last loss of the season.

We need everyone at training and only those who turn up to training should be selected for first grade. Most of second grade turned up to training last week and they won 6-3. ONLY 4 first graders turned up to training and we got driven 6-0. There's a message quite plain to see. Let's hope the selectors see it that way!!

RED RUGBY

Well, last Thursday saw happen the thing that all Red Rugby players and supporters dread most in life, being beaten in both grades by our old arch enemies the Aggies.

The second grade once again ran on with another new side as it has done almost every week this season, the whole side played well and were unlucky to go down 4-0. Best for the Devils were: Geoff Roddy, Marc Cornell and Mark Ryan.

The first grade started out well and had the aggies back pedalling for the first 15 or 20 minutes but thats about as far as it went. The red devils lost complete control of the game and ended up losing 27-3. Best for the Red Devils on the day were Harry Pavlovas and Peter McMillan.

Saturday the devils travelled to Leeton, The second grade once again just scraped together as a side to run on, outweighed by at least 2 stone per man, the red forwards held and then dominated play with the backs holding out the opposing backs well.

First to score for the Reddies was a ring-in Bushpig in the form of Robert Parr who swooped onto the loose ball and sprinted 50 metres to the line and then died of exhaustion.

Leeton struck back with a try and the scores were locked at 4 all till Robert Snook popped over a field goal and we hung onto the 7-4 lead till full time.

Best for the Reddies were Anthony Bush, Mark Lyons, Richmond and the pewter winner Mark Hibbins who played his heart out all day. Good stuff Hibbo!

The first grade forwards played good rugby easily matching the larger Leeton pack, the backs also played well but a number of handling errors cost us the game.

The game was locked at nil all till almost the end. Leeton scored with about fifteen minutes to go, the Reddies fought back well, but were unlucky to give away a penalty right in front of the post on one of the few occasions when the Leetong side was in our half. The Reddies came back again but didn't have enough time and were beaten 7-0. Best for the Reddies were Chris Watkins, Brian Laybutt and the pewter winner Emmanuel Psaltis.

Just a reminder to all those who seem to have forgotten training is Tuesday at 8pm at South Campus and this week Friday training at Nth Campus at 5pm. So lets all get to training and make a fresh start in the second round.

PING PONG

Last Tuesday night our Table Tennis teams won three out of six matches. Our winning teams were Red (A grade), Silver (B1 grade) and Green (B2 Grade).

Special mention must be made to both, Liz Farnsworth (B2) and Mark Fletcher (B1) who not only won all their games, but, won them quite convincingly.

Another miraculously determined player on Tuesday night was our College state (number 4) squash player, Garry Green. He was in fine form and fought against all odds (an injured arm and shoulder due to an Aussie Rules Football injury recently incurred) to emerge victorious for the first time this competition. Garry narrowly won the first set 22-20 and then with new found confidence won the next set 21-11, thus taking the game.

College results last Tuesday were A grade R.C.A.E Red defeated losers 7-4 (P Keogh 2 S Helliwell 2, and M English 1,)

A Reserve Orange lost to MCM 2-9

(Gary Green 1 and R Faulkner 1)
