3rd Year Farewell

Congratulations to E² for putting on a successful 3rd year farewell last Friday night. I hope that all final year students had a great rage at their farewell ball.

Daily Advertiser

Last Friday 13th, the Editor of the Wagga Daily Advertiser continued his anti-student campaign again in his editorial.

Under the editorial of "The High Cost of Education" he has again come out and backed the Liberal Government in supporting the re-introduction of tertiary tuition fees for second and higher degrees.

He claims that the government should expose "in which way the tax payers money has been squandered". I wonder what he means by Squandered? It is true that money in all government departments is sometimes misdirected (and also in private enterprise) but squandered!!

Many people would agree that money spent on subsidising farmers, big business and money spent on defence is also squandered. But I do not hear any bleatings from the Editor on these issues.

Students undertaking second and higher degrees contribute to Australia's economic future. Many students who undertake second degrees contribute research that would not be normally done by others in the community therefore contributing in a very meaningful way to our society.

Too often Australia has had to import qualified overseas persons such as during the Snowy Scheme of the 50's, the Teacher shortage of the 60's and now during the so-called Mining boom - if we have to have qualified people in the community to meet the needs of the community then it is about time the government started to train our own people now!

Nuclear Madness

Recently we have seen a resurgence of anti-nuclear fever in the streets of Europe. The Europeans are seeing American and NATO policy as being directed not in their best interests. Recently President Reagan of the USA and his Secretary of State have made 'slips' indicating that they are prepared to use Europe as a battle ground prior to a major nuclear strike.

The American administration has gone to some pains to reassure the Europeans that the dropping of a nuclear bomb in Europe would only be used as a deterrent to any conventional Soviet attack and it is only one of many options which has been considered.

Recent disclosures have revealed that during the 50's and 60's the Americans seriously considered that they would use a nuclear weapon against the Soviets to warn them if they attacked Europe. What this means is that the Americans were willing to drop a nuclear bomb on Europe when they felt that they had a superior balance of power and that they could get away with an attack without retribution from the Russians. This clearly shows that in terms of fire power, the Americans are the aggressors and not the Soviets as they claim.

FROM APT. HANSA

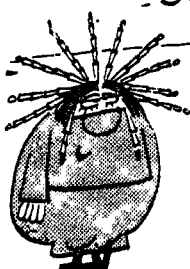

Now that the balance of power is fairly even the Americans are more loath to use a nuclear bomb in Europe but nevertheless it is still an option - no wonder the citizens of Europe are nervous at the prospect of their countries' being used as a battle ground for the super powers.

Australia too is involved in this world wide power struggle, with Darwin and Fremantle both being used to harbour American nuclear bombs in transit, also Pine Gap which is an integral part of American advanced warning systems then these parts of Australia are prime nuclear targets.

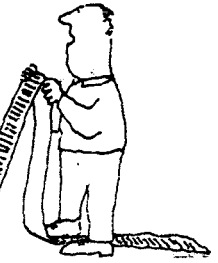

Have you got your bomb shelter ready?

Till next week.

Letters

Dear E²,

I would like to, on behalf of many final year students, thank the Es operation in staging last Thursday night's farewell. The band was true rockabilly and gave the crowd a great run for their money..

The night seemed to have everything not only with great music but also for fight fans a bit of TV Ringside. While watching the space shuttle take off I saw a bloke get almost thrown thru the roof of the Union. Although my religious beliefs refuse me to take part in such scuffles I did think it was quite enjoyable.

As this is my final year I would like to thank the Union and E2 for three years of fun filled enjoyment. May God go with you all.

Final Year Stud

Dear Editor,

I want to know about bodybuilding medicine, I am very interested to study about bodybuilding and I want you to send me some facts about bodybuilding. But I am very interested to read bodybuilding booklets, and I want you to send some bodybuilding medicine to me. I am one of the college students that want to know about body building.

And I want you to send me some pictures about body building and some body building stickers and some medicine about body building.

Thank you,

Tommy Tucker

Rock Expo

E² will stage a five band ROCK EXPO on Friday November 27 to finalise the years entertainment programme.

The expo will be staged outdoors on the Union lawns from 9pm - 3am.

The bands on the all-local bill are Foreign Bodies, Swift Kicks, Mini & The Mozarts, Red Handed and Lo Profile.

They will play from the rear of a trailer in front of West Block.

FM Radio station 2AAA are making arrangements to record the gig for broadcast.

It should prove to be a great promotion for local talent as well as excellent rock'n'roll for fans.

Any persons or groups who would like to set up a stall to sell goods are asked to contact me for permission and other details.

ROCK EXPO may not reach the heights of Sunbury or Tanelorn but it should be a great way to finish off the year.

Open Trivia Championships

The Rivcoll Olive Sucking Sporting and Social Club present the inaugural Riverina College Open Trivia Championships in the Union on Thursday nite.

Entry is $20 per team consisting of eight persons. The first prize is an 18 gallon keg.

A Trivia Quiz is always fun - so get a team together for the final quiz of '81.

Equipment

Final reminder to all Sports and Activities Clubs that they are required to return their equipment prior to being allocated a budget for 1982.

The Union will bring down the 1982 Budget at their meeting on Saturday November 21.

Please return equipment and an inventory to me in the Union office by Friday.

Alternative External Handbook

The Union is producing an Alternative External Handbook for publication and distribution to all external students early in 1982.

We invite articles from external and part-time students for inclusion in this booklet.

Please feel free to submit articles on course content, assessment, services etc.

Send any articles to The Editor, Alternative External Handbook, C/- Rivcoll Union

Life Management Farewell Dinner

The Life Management Club wind up their activities for 1981 with their now annual Farewell Dinner on Saturday nite.

A smorgasbord dinner and bush band in addition to novelty presentations make up the evenings activities.

Tickets at $6.50 are available from executive members of the club. All welcome.

Congratulations to the Life Mano's for another great year of activity in 1981. As well as being involved in social activities the club has been actively involved in making representations to academics for changes in the course structure. A good cause well worth pursuing!

"Punk"

The now long-awaited performance of Rivcoll Drama's "PUNK" will be staged at 6pm on Wednesday November 18 in the new Drama Studios.

Good value at $1.00 (including wine and cheese)

I believe it is definitely on this date!

Orientation '82

The final meeting to arrange the 1982 Orientation Week committee will be held at noon on Thursday November 26 in the Union Auditorium.

We still need more students to assist in the preparation and presentation of "O" Week '82.

Please attend if you feel you can make a contribution.

Dave Warners New Album

True-blue rock fans will be delighted to know that dynamic Oz Rock performer Dave Warner's latest album has been released by his new label - Polygram Entitled "This is My Planet" it includes all the latest favourites "Car Park", "Kookaburra Girl", "U K Euchred", "Bicton Vs. Brooklyn" and "Buried In My Own Backyard".

Despite being denied air-play by radio, Dave still reigns supreme as Australia's most original and innovative rock poet.

Film Club

The Film Club's final screening for the year - "Goodbye Girl" and "The Champ" is on this Sunday in the Swan Theatre from 7.30pm

riverina college open Trivia championships

Thursday night 19th November sees the Rivcoll Olive Suckers Sporting and Social Club hosting the inaugural College Trivia Championships. The aim of this event is to find a champion team who will have the exclusive honour of calling themselves the true trivia champs of Riverina College.

Accompanying this famous title is a first prize of an 18 gallon keg of victoria's finest (and only worthwhile?) produce. As if this were not enough to entice even the most reticent trivia buffs to attend there has also been donated a perpetual trophy which will have the winning teams name engraved upon it and it will then be placed on display in the trophy case for all mankind to view and admire.

Second and third placed teams will also be rewarded with great prizes being awarded to the teams filling these positions at the conclusion of the evenings entertainment. Also, as has become the custom at trivia nights there will be a large number of prizes awarded as "spot question/answer" prizes. These prizes include flagons, books, etc.

Entry fee for this monumental Social event is only $20 for a team of eight players, which means only $2.50 per person for what could become the best night's entertainment at College since "Vanessa the Undressa" performed for us several years ago.

What type of questions could you expect at this night? In one word pure "trivia" will be the order of the evening with no special categories of questions being asked.

Questions will be similar to these:

- * What is the name of the Phantom's horse?
- * How many rooms are there in East Block?
- * What is Noel Diffey's middle name?
- * Who is Humphry Pennyworth?
- * What are the ingredients of a maggot?

Judges for the evening will be a panel of multicultural Olive Suckers who have spent countless hours researching the questions and are thus full of trivia.

So come along and enjoy yourself at what promises to be the happening of the year.

Child Care in '82

Many parents and other interested people have been seeking information on the future of on campus child care.

A submission to the office of child care was made earlier this year. However due to Federal Government cuts this proposal could not be finalised by the Australian Government. Because of this the College has indicated that it would not support the development of a new child care facility on campus. The Union has therefore re-negotiated the lease on the premises at 309 Pine Gully Road on the same terms and conditions as in 1981. This means that there will be the same child care facilities on campus in 1982 as their were in 1981.

A special thank you to Yvonne Winer and other members of the child care investigation committée as well as those people who made an input to the proposal.

One Student Voice?

Union representatives will meet with the State Minister for Education, Mr Ron Mulock, today 17th November, to discuss changes necessary to various legislation to provide adequate representation for staff and students on the governing body of a multi-campus College.

The Minister acknowledged when questioned at Goulburn that he would be prepared to consider changes to the legislation and it is anticipated that the Union delegation will receive a favourable hearing.

N Diffey
Executive Officer.

TEAS

Continuing students should submit a TEAS application as soon as the exam results are available. 1982 forms will automatically be sent to all students who received TEAS this semester. 1982 application forms will be available at my office - probably late January.

Re Exam Results

Students who find that they have to amend their course subjects should make an educated guess and submit their TEAS application early. The on-campus office has a supply of "change of circumstances" form which students should use to notify TEAS of any subsequent change of subjects.

SYNOPSIS... "THE GOODBYE GIRL"

Everything seems to be coming up orchids for Paula McFadden (Marsha Mason), an attractive 33 year old ex-Broadway chorine, and her disarmingly perceptive ten year old daughter Lucy (Quinn Cummings), as they shop for new clothes to take to Hollywood. The current man in Paula's life is a handsome actor named Tony, who has been summoned from New York to the Coast for a TV-opic. The understanding is that she and Lucy will accompany him.

The euphoria lasts until they get back to their West Side apartment to find a "Dear Paula" letter. Enter Elliot Garfield (Richard Dreyfuss), an aspiring, fast-talking actor from Chicago. Unbeknownst to Paula, Tony has sublet the apartment they shared to Elliot, who has come to New York for his big chance--playing Shakespeare off-off-off Broadway. Elliot is understandably puzzled when he finds his "sublet" inhabited by mother and child, and Paula is properly infuriated, not to mention financially busted. She tries to keep Elliot out, but his legal position prevails since the lease is in Tony's name. After considerable verbal jousting, Garfield, good and decent fellow that he is, makes Paula an offer she is in no position to refuse. Until they can get themselves squared away, they will share the apartment.

Difficulties arise immediately, as one would expect with such an odd coupling. Elliot has a tendency to roam around in the altogether when insomnia strikes, and since he is paying the rent and is loathe to change his habits, he suggests that Paula and Lucy keep to their bedroom with the door closed. He often lulls himself back to sleep by playing the guitar, an activity that has the reverse effect on Paula. Devoted to health foods and meditation, he starts the day - at dawn - with chanting and incense. For her part, Paula, in addition to her antipathy toward actors in general, feels put off by Elliot himself and somehow never has a kind word for him. It is this warm, yet warring atmosphere that Paula and Elliot go about their respective businesses. The other female in the picture - Lucy - has been in Elliot's corner all along. She has sensed his quality and adds to her mother's nervousness by mentioning how nice Paula and Elliot look together. It is obvious that Lucy has a crush on him, but Paula herself cannot dismiss Elliott's niceness. Hasn't he been subsidizing her and Lucy since a purse-snatcher rade off with her paltry funds?

As it turns out, Elliot is fortunately "between engagements" when Paula gets a job at the auto show extolling the features of Subaru cars. He utches over Lucy for Paula, and the home front grows even more harmonious. The emotional shift is not without its traumas. Paula, love-shy from her former encounters, has mammoth misgivings about the whole thing, and Lucy, too, worries that misery is about to repeat itself.

It actually looks that way for a while when Elliot, performing with an improvisational group, gets a role in a movie to be done in Seattle. As he packs his duffel, Paula steels herself for the inevitable departure, then realizes with surprise that this time she is not going to crumble. This summer she has grown up.

Elliot swears he'll be back, but Paula is not totally convinced. Paula and Lucy settle in for the long wait, but a short time later, Elliot calls. His plane has been delayed, and he has traded in his first-class ticket for two economy fares - one for Paula. But now she doesn't have to go. She knows he will return. And the goodbye girl will have a warm hello for him when he does.

SHE'S BACK!

SOFTBALL

Sunday saw two of the college teams in action, A Grade and C Grade with B Grade having a bye.

A Grade had an impressive win 11-2 over Turvey Park. Fine batting was displayed by all members of the team with Jane Hardy hitting two home runs and Olive McWhinney one.

Excellent fielding aided this win, with Kay Satterthwaite on third base and Kirsty Grant on first base making good plays. Sally Lawson pitched well for the duration of the game.

Unfortunately, the C team met defeat at the hands of Bears by 8-4. Good batting was shown by Judy Daunt, Laurie Robinson and Rhonda Lowrie. All members fielded well, with Mandy Witterbottom pitching a good game. Eloise Ferrara third base, Elaine Lewis first and Laurie Robinson catcher made some fine plays during the game.

This game finished early due to injury and we hope Chris you are soon up and back at softball.

A Reminder to All Players

The Annual General Softball meeting is being held this Thursday 19th November.

Time: 1.00pm

Place: Soccer Fields

All players are asked to attend as office bearers for next year are to be elected.

Training is on Thursday from 12.15 - 2pm at Soccer Fields

Friday 4-6pm Tennis Courts, South Campus.

Dont forget come along on Thursday and have your say on the running of the club.

BASKETBALL

There are only two more games to play before finals. Please pay money owing to club because we are in debt sky high. Just a reminder that people who do not pay Rego fees will not be eligible to play sport for college next year.

Also another reminder that players have to donate an item of food to the raffle.

SOCCER

There will be a General Meeting this Wednesday night 18th November 7.30pm at South Campus Gym. The meeting has been called to select the new committee for next year. Everyone is expected to be there, even if you're leaving this year to give support to this great club.

Chuck.

Cricket

Chris Pearson led the Turtles to a win over Buckley's Chance with a solid innings. The Turtles win was more highlighted by their bowling, dismissing Buckley's Chance for a mere 49.

In the afternoon match the grudge match between the Bushpigs and the Cavaliers saw the Bushpigs eclipse the Cavaliers 112 to 90. Paul Butterworth kept the Cavaliers in the game with a fine innings of 37 not out.
