Dear Phoebe (Mrs) Price - I am sorry, but I doubt if it will be possible for me to go to bagga wagee for the Eisteddfod & the presentation of your so generously given & inscribed bowl.
Perhaps I have told you this already, & I am sure I wrote it to the Eisteddfod. I have your letter before me dated 27th Sept., & as I have not written it as answered, I am waiting sure now.

Mr Plekewore, of the Teachers' College, wrote to say they intend a very glorious gate (or gates), wh. to me is almost too good to be believed - as a memorial. But I am afraid I will not be able to see them opened either.

 I lack strength, for one thing, & am trying to get a book finished in time for publication next year. I have to conserve strength for this work. In any case I do not stand best well, & that is against my travelling far from Sydney. I sent Mr Blaburne my apologies, thanks & a lot of wiggles & biographical notes. I hope he received the letter safely. (He has not acknowledged it.) I wonder could you ask him? The old town, through you, has a deep sorrow ago, has been very generous to me; how grateful I am!
 all the best life can give for you & your husband - Mary Selmore
