Dear Ruth,

I was pleasantly surprised when I got the flowers you so kindly sent me. Many thanks for them. I feel rather ashamed that I sent you no Easter-wishes but, you see, we are restricted to two letters a week and so it happens that I sometimes don't know where to write first. The other day I had a letter from England saying amongst other things that Miss Newmann had been injured in a raid. I don't exactly know what happened but it doesn't seem to be too serious as she is able to write letters. I hope she'll be all right again soon. I am pretty busy just now with my library-work. We got some more books lately and are now doing quite well, considering the circumstances. How are you getting on? I suppose you are busy with your teaching? I am beginning now to like your climate a bit better, in summer it was really too hot, I could hardly stand it. Well, I have to bring this to a close now, but I hope to hear from you again before too long. With my best wishes your sincerely fr. J.
