

Mr W M Campbell,

Coombil,

CARRATHOOL.

H. A. EVANS

TELEPHONE 208

BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER

101 Auburn Street,
Goulburn.

July 24, 1917.

Mr W M Campbell,

COOMBIL.

Dear Sir,

Your kind favour of 21st inst to hand this morning, also postal note for 10/- for which I thank you. As 6/6 will cover your subscription to the end of the year, I am venturing to send you 2 Books at 1/6; one of these "All the Rumours" is just in, a very clever little book. I also have just opened Miss Marie Petersen's new novel - "The Captive Singer", which has been so well reviewed. It is a Tasmanian story, written by a Sydney girl - of the Bjelke Petersen School. The price of same is 4/-.

Yours faithfully,

H. A. Evans

STATIONER'S HALL, 101 Auburn Street (opp. P.O.)

M. r W Campbell, COOMBIL.

Goulburn, July 24, 1917

Dr. to H. A. EVANS,

Bookseller and Stationer.

'PHONE 208

Kodaks and Photographic Supplies.

Underwood Typewriters.

Waterman Fountain Pens.

To amount of a/c rendered

Sub to Captain to Dec 31, 1917

6/6

Paid with thanks, this date.

H.A.E.

A HISTORICAL and UNIQUE VOLUME

One of the finest Presentation Books

that can be secured at the present time, is;
without doubt

"At the Landing and here ever since."

The Anzac Book

It is full of Delightful Stories and Sketches, all being written and illustrated by OUR OWN SOLDIERS in the Trenches.

A SPLENDID MEMENTO

Of the Anzacs' Heroism and Endurance.

Obtainable at all Booksellers 6/6

Published by the

HOUSE of CASSELL

MELBOURNE,

SYDNEY BRISBANE & LONDON.

(P.T.O.)

Complaints of the Season."

A SPLENDID ..

Presentation Volume

---

For

YOUNG and OLD BOY or GIRL

Strongly Bound IN CLOTH .. ..

(P.T.O.)

6/6

(Post Free 7/-)