Tuesday night 21st August 1928

Dear Walter

Thank you for your wire today.
I am addressing this letter to Arms. Exchange Hotel, Bridge St.
as I think you must be there.

My own darling boy, how I wish I could help to lift some of your load, I can only ask God to help you at present,
do rest all you can. & don't let them worry me.

I think you must be with
J. Reid, I hope so.

I wonder if many of father's friends were at his funeral,
you have always been such a dutiful son to your father.

I hope he has remembered it.

I caught the train leaving at Cootamundra & the Hotel driver kept his word, & was very good indeed, & Sidnam

was at the Railway Station & drove me out. he said he got back to Gundagai 7.30<sup>pm</sup>
on Sunday night, I told him
you might be back on Saturday morning.

Everything was alright here.
The cats had been fed, &
our dog & Nappier.
Charles received my cable. &

& answered it today, he lost
no time, did he?

I wish I knew if you are a little rested, & not worrying, do take care of yourself, where is Jean staying?
Perhaps with Dr Sharp.

I hope the flowers arrived in good time, Phil wired me
today & sent loving sympathy to you & me
I & see Ben if you have time, you can trust him, don't lose a chance of getting into touch with good immovable men
Be careful what you promise
God take care of our darling, & God bless Love from mother.
