Dear Mr<sup>s</sup> Bland

Thank very much for the waistcoat though hope I shan't need it; had I known it was so bulky I would not have let you carry it all this way it was awfully good of you.

I received your letter the other day did not reply at once as you did not wish Rachel to know you had written, she might have seen my letter to you & wondered you see.
Your letter was most kind though much too flattering to me.

I have not yet given up hope for the future & don't intend to.

Thank you for your good wishes to me, they mean a lot to me.

Yours sincerely
P. Campbell
