Dear Walter

I posted a letter by the late bee on Sunday ~~yesterday~~ & no enclosed to Amy to give Alec, to ask her to be at the Glen early on Thursday morning. & asking you if you could meet me at Gundagai on Thursday morning. & if Amy had not arrived when you left to give kitchen key to Ted. & ask him to fry eggs. & bacon on breakfast I hope you got it all right.

Louise & Mary turned up Saturday & I am sorry I went out without your letter thought I had written it on Friday night to have it ready.

& then I went yesterday Sunday to the railway station & posted it, I hope you got it safely & that you are well. I shall soon see you now so won't write much.

I have been out all day, & have had a lesson in Backgammon.

I have bought a board & a small book on it for you to learn, it's a fascinating game, & is to be very fashionable, your father was very fond of it, it is all in throwing the dice, if you get good throws, & I love it for you will like it when you have a little ^{time} & it keeps you from other worries.

Andy & his wife, & child a nice little boy came for Louise & Mary Andy asked very kindly after you, he looks very happy & has a nice large car. I have never seen him looking so well & happy - he said poor Charlie when speaking of him.

Much love old boy see you soon Your affectionate Mother
