ACCESSION SHEET

FROM: Gundaline Pastoral Company (Cooinbil) Pty Ltd

Accession No. RW

Cooinbil - in those days a 5000-acre portion of Toganmain Station - was purchased in 1895 by Frederick Campbell, who at the time owned several other properties, including Yarralumla in the Queanbeyan district where he lived. In 1913, when Yarralumla was resumed to become part of the fledgling Australian Capital Territory and the residence of the Governor-General of Australia, Campbell transferred his headquarters and livestock to Cooinbil. At the same time he formed the family company Cooinbil Pty Ltd. Also in 1912, the property was increased in size to about 64 000 acres.

The registered Merino Flock (ASMFR No. 20) was founded by Frederick Campbell at Yarralumla in 1884 and was subsequently transferred to Cooinbil.

Cooinbil is situated in the centre of the Riverina plain, being approximately 30 km south of the Murrumbidgee River and 100 km from both Hay and Narrandera. The main property covers 25 858 hectares and has large areas of almost treeless, heavy, black soil plains; there are equal areas of lighter textured red soil plains, some of which are lightly timbered; these are balanced by numerous sand hills covered with pine and other native timbers.
