WESTERN HOUSE,
FAREHAM,
HANTS

My dear friend Who has had an altercation of some kind with me and my family. I am sorry for a letter of yours of the 12th Jan I am so sorry you did not pass, but perhaps you will have another chance for I am sure 15 letters will be wanted for a long time yet, so I hope more ships than ever the age limit will be extended - Every thing still looks rather dark but I suppose in time we shall get the better of the Germans - I think these submarines are so crafty & so cowardly, & I suppose we shall have sunk, at the 1st March has passed - I expect you enjoy being at Red Hill, it always sounds so nice, I always wish I could see it - I think it must be like some of the Stations that I knew as a girl, & have very happy memories of.

I hope poor White Jack's Sight is not worse, it must be so very sad for him to be losing his sight & so distressing for you all.
We hope to have Aunt Susan here next week Kate is with her, or I am talking
