101 Ways to Annoy People

1. Sing the Batman theme incessantly.
2. In the memo field of all your checks, write "for sensual massage."
3. Specify that your drive-through order is "to go."
4. Learn Morse code, and have conversations with friends in public consisting entirely of "Beeeeeep Bip Bip Beeep Bip..."
5. If you have a glass eye, tap on it occasionally with your pen while talking to others.
6. Amuse yourself for endless hours by hooking a camcorder to your TV and then pointing it at the screen.
7. Speak only in a "robot" voice.
8. Push all the flat Lego pieces together tightly.
9. Start each meal by conspicuously licking all your food, and announce that this is yours so no one will "swipe your grub".
10. Leave the copy machine set to reduce 200%, extra dark, 17 inch paper, 98 copies.

Remember guys if you want your face in Velocity or have anything you want to contribute to the magazine email us at csuvelocitymagazine@gmail.com or post pictures on our facebook site Velocity by MCC!

Chaplaincy

Chaplains are available to support and assist students and staff - especially during the sometimes challenging transition to University life for new students.

The new Chaplaincy Coordinator at Thurgoona (starting 21 March) is Rev. Judy Redman. Judy has extensive experience in tertiary chaplaincy and comes to us from the University of New England, Armidale. Judy will oversee a group of volunteer chaplains who are available weekdays from 11.00 am - 2.30 pm.

The Volunteer Chaplains are:

- Kim Beaumont (City Central Church, Albury)
- Denis Devcich (Thurgoona Catholic Parish)
- Br Denis Golden (Thurgoona Catholic Parish)
- Allen Hampton (St John's Anglican Church, Thurgoona)
- Marie Lee (St Matthews Anglican, Albury)
- Prof David Mitchell (St Mark's North Albury and St John's Anglican, Thurgoona)
- Elizabeth Thomas (St. David's Uniting Church, Albury)

You will find the chaplains in Room 111, Ground Floor in the Gordon Bevan Building (673). Students from all religious and faith backgrounds are welcome. Please feel free to drop in and say hi.

Harmony Day

On the 21st of March the International club held Harmony Day. This is a day where we celebrate many different cultures. We had food stalls which sold food from South Korea, China and Australia. We also had some performances from international students including a traditional Chinese dance by Missy and some Tae kwon do from the Korean students as well as much more. It was a very successful event and everyone had fun.

Here is a delicious recipe all the way from South Korea
