What's Been Happening

Physio Ball 2013

PHYSIO BALL 2013 As predictable as grapes at a vineyard, the annual Physiotherapy Club Ball was held on the 10th of August at the Commercial Club, Albury, and yet again was exceptionally enjoyed function by all. Glasses were charged, laughter was bellowed and some of the best dancing since David Rodan's Footy Show player's review was exhibited. The 'Hollywood Red Carpet' styled ball was justified with many exquisitely dressed ladies and sharply suited gentlemen all posing like lunatics in fun photos courtesy of 'Carolyn's Photo Booth'.

The night proved a valued send off for the fourth year's, who have regrettably attended their final physio ball as students. Player profiles of each fourth year were distributed about the tables with some light hearted drubbing of each person. These students also were presented in the form of some 'exposed snapchat's' on the big screen. Pursed lips and mild nudity were the main hit of these images which elicited a cheap laugh from the audience of around 250. Any of the fourth years (or perhaps perspective researchers) who would like a copy of these academic articles can get them from Billy Williams if so desired.

Best wishes go to these individuals who are venturing to a life of hamstring injuries and sputum analysis as opposed to Thursday night toga parties and not paying attention in lectures... Enjoy that perspective all you 1st years.

Lucas 'The Flame' Hoare tried to emulate his nickname by lighting napkins with candles and a few others took to the street as vigilantes. A few quiet achievers came out of their shells including Steff and Sonja and the veterans of physio ball performers in Loz and Bree continued their expected track

Sports Equipment & Facilities

There is a range of sporting equipment available to borrow for the day or overnight. See Lee Elliott, B 672.

Students can also use the Tennis Courts at Thurgoona Country Club free, just have your student card on you.

record. I'm a bit short on many other stories from the night due to the memory loss and exuberance that physio ball consistently provides, so if anyone has some controversial gossip that's yet to hit the public please come out with it...

A big thank you goes to Brad Jones and the Physio Club hierarchy for their devout efforts in organising the function. The Commercial Club was also very accommodating and all attendees were well behaved (reasonably).

Thanks to everyone who came along and helped to induce a jovial atmosphere among Uni students in which everyone had a great night. Hope everyone backs it up for the upcoming Podiatry and OT balls!

Words by Bill Williams

Trivia Night, 8 August

Trivia Night saw 13 tables battling it out to win the major prizes. Trivia Oz made the trip from Melbourne to host the night. After settling into tables and ordering nibbles, the night consisted of five rounds of questions with a couple of breaks. Fundraising throughout the night (including Nearest the Pin) will help a group of Albury-Wodonga students go to the Australian University Games in October. At the end of the night, the scoreboard revealed that Table 11 were our champions, followed equally by Table 6 & Table 12.

For those of you who couldn't attend, here's a little trivia for you:

Since retiring from service, where is the QE2 docked on a permanent basis? Dubai

How many 'Rocky' films did Sylvester Stallone star in? Six

What is the name of the singer who had a hit with 'Poker Face'? Lady Gaga

What are the four main ingredients of a Waldorf salad?

Celery, apples, walnuts and grapes

Don't miss the next trivia coming up on the 26th September
