Dear Walter

I was so pleased to get your letter with Charlie's enclosed.

+ I will keep his until you come.

Yes, I got two together from Charlie by this last mail written the 6th & 11th July. He was told to had seen Selwyn Miller, he said Selwyn looks much better then when he left Australia.

I have just been speaking to Mrs Miller on the telephone. +

She had three letters from Selwyn he has passed + came out to

I think she said so that is good. he will either go to Palastine or africa. they get their choice. but it does not look as if the war was to end for another year.

I expect you will stay at Red Hill until Wednesday <sup>morning</sup> Day. I hope they do well, but anyway it will give a good many people pleasure Mr & Miss Ross are leaving ~~for~~ home for Red Hill tonight. one will be quite a good party.

You will like Mr Ross he is so cheerful & Miss Ross is very bright too.

When you come down I get your teeth fixed up. & have a rest & if the Doctors say you & you get into the right ~~time~~ time, & they should at any time, want you to exchange from that into something else after you leave here. I want you to promise me you won't change. as morning might come against your two, & father had an idea of the British army, stick to the Australians stick to your own part of the Empire. & be true to your Country, your Mother & St Fairfax. Roberts to put your little miniature Coloured Photograph into a little ~~gold~~ gold frame & wear it as a brooch, your brother's present to me, thank you dear old boy.

I am afraid this letter may be late Kate thinks so am sorry The butter & flowers arrived this morning I am writing to Miss Silliespie to thank her for the butter Father left yesterday for New England I hope he won't lose his luggage again, he sat Saturday night all safe nothing missing.
Much love to you, & kind regards to her.
